TIME-OUT

Grant/No Grant

- grant to team if teammate has player control, but not to opponent
- after foul, do not grant until information is reported to table or disqualified player has been replaced
- grant to team if ball is "at their disposal", but not to opponent
- grant only to head coach (oral or visual) if there is player control;
- grant to airborne player with possession; player with both feet in air and falling out-of-bounds
- grant to either team, if ball is dead
- grant excess timeout; penalize the infraction
- do not grant during interrupted dribble

Signal

- Official signals time-out by extending arm/open hand straight up with simultaneous whistle
- Official that signals the time-out also reports the time-out to table.
- Report team color, # of player or coach requesting time-out, to scorers
- Report if 30 or 60-second time-out to scorers/timer
- Signal timer to begin time-out

Court Position Guidelines

- Officials do not switch court positions. Official with "line responsibility" when time-out was called, will administer the resumption of play throw-in and should assume that spot after reporting the time out.

- If 30 second - one official goes to designated resumption of play spot and other official straddles division line, half-way between center circle and sideline closest to table. Both officials face the table.
- If 60 Second - one official goes to designated resumption of play spot and other official straddles division line, half-way between sideline farthest from the table and the center circle. Both officials face the table.
- Administering official - place ball on either hip or back to indicate direction of ball. Do NOT place on the floor!
- Warning horn - when warning horn sounds, both officials initially move towards each team huddle and verbally say "first horn" and put index finger in air; then move to resumption of play court positions.
- Final horn – Administering official will blow whistle before resuming play or use resumption of play procedure if teams are not ready to play.
